

Privacy Statement

Personal privacy and security of information are mutual concerns of H.O.G., its members, and visitors to the All American Chapter web site. This Statement explains our policies and security measures relating to personal privacy and information security.

The All American Chapter does not collect or store any information about you when you visit our Chapter web site. The only information that we get from our site are the number of visits to a couple of our pages via page counters provided by our ISP. We use this information to measure the number of visitors to these pages to help make our site more responsive to our members and prospective members.

We will not obtain personally identifying information about you when you visit our site unless you choose to provide such information. If you choose to send E-Mail, registration, or other personal information over the Internet, you do so voluntarily.

The All American Chapter will not disclose personal information provided to it except as follows:

At your request, which may be oral, in writing, by telephone, electronic or other means we recognize;

To assist H.O.G. in evaluating its programs and to continue to improve the quality of your on-line and membership experience;

When disclosure is required by law, such as pursuant to court order, subpoena, legal process or government agency examination or investigation, or to protect or enforce our rights.

By your use of and connection to our web site, you understand and consent to this privacy statement. If for any reason you are concerned that the personal or member information maintained by H.O.G. is not correct or if for some reason you believe we have not adhered to these privacy principles, please notify the webmaster.
